Weekly Prayer
Loving Father, our hearts and minds are restless trying to understand the sufferings of our world. Send us the wisdom of your Spirit to realise how closely Jesus has brought your life and love into our world. When affliction and suffering overwhelm us may the sense of his presence guide and uphold us in his ways of love. We ask this in his name confident that you will hear us. Amen.

Around Our School

Remembrance Day

I wear a little poppy, as red as red can be, to show that I remember, those who fought for me.
