"Where Learning and Friendship Grow"

Dear Families

In the words of a song, "When the going gets tough, the tough get going", I congratulate you all on your toughness in managing remote learning again. Your mental toughness is appreciated. There have been some amazing achievements during this time. For example, a student who asked the teacher when he was supposed to complete a task because he had looked at his daily schedule and there didn't seem to be time allocated for it; several examples of students using technology to introduce their friends to their environment and their pets online and a great suggestion for a Catholic Social Justice response from another.

You should have received a letter this morning about arrangements for Term 4. Please note that all of our students return to school from Monday 5th October. As there will be no further remote learning sessions all borrowed Chrome Books must be returned to school by this time to enable class use when required.

My good news to share is:

- Miss Sophie Reichelt will be continuing as the MacKillop teacher until the end of the year. Many thanks to Sophie for extending her contract and enabling continuity for our Grade 1&2 children. I am sure you are all as thrilled as I am.
- Mrs Jamee Royce will be returning from maternity leave. She will be working on Wednesdays from 28th October. She will teach in the MacKillop class with Miss Reichelt each morning, providing extra support for students in English and Maths. Afternoons will be spent providing support for teachers and students in the role of Learning Adjustment Leader. We are looking forward to welcoming Jamee back.

Finally, I wish you all well-deserved, restful holidays. If you haven't already done so, don't forget to use your voucher to enjoy a coffee on us as a thank you for your co-operation and assistance during remote learning.

Kind regards

Marie

PRAYER

Lord our God, in our pursuit of justice we often close our hearts to another's need. Make us conscious of your mercy towards us, that in our dealings with others we may allow your generosity to temper our desire for justice. We ask this in Jesus' name, confident that you will hear us.

*We were surrounded by a red glow
But there was nowhere else to go
We decided our house wasn't really safe
We ended up in town and then at the evacuation place.*

*The floor was hard and the room was so hot
We had full cotton clothing so I was sweating a lot
It was the middle of the night, mum told us to rest
I think she tried to be calm but i know she was stressed.*

*The fire looked like it was near my house or coming close
It was turning the bush into burnt toast
I thought I was going to lose everything even my life
I definitely felt like my dad was in real strife.*

*Me and my sisters laid on the hard old floor
We were near some friends, mum said stay near the door
We kept a woollen blanket next to us in case
And a cotton tablecloth mum had ripped for our face.*

*The smoke was so thick and stinging my eyes
If only I could close them and wake up to blue skies
But this night was not done
And my holidays were not going to be fun.*
